Kentucky Wesleyan College

Winchester, Kentucky

¶ The college of Southern Methodists in Kentucky. Splendid new buildings and a course of study as good as can be had. Both elective courses and those leading to the B. S. and A. B. degrees are given. Kentucky Wesleyan College has a high standard of moral and religious influence that makes it a safe place. Expenses very moderate. Second term will open January 21st.

¶ Every Methodist in Kentucky who goes away to college should go to Kentucky Wesleyan College as his own and only college in the State. We ask the aid of the preachers in talking for the college, sending in names, etc.

Is a question asked by every careful buyer, and if the article costs more at one store than at another, the store which charges the higher prices is not patronized. ## LOUISVILLE TRAINING SCHOOL

Located at "Beautiful Beechmont," the loveliest and most healthful suburb of Louisville, twenty minutes' ride (on Fourth-Avenue car, Park via Third) from the heart of the city, probably offers the greatest inducements of any school in the State to all patrons seeking absolute Thoroughness, excellent Discipline, unexceptionable Surroundings, and moderate Expenses. We limit our numbers—taking only the cream minds—those who show our work of drill. The physical, mental and moral forces of a developing boy are tremendous. The time for the proper training of a boy's mind is limited to a few years: then comes his life work. The Head Master of L. T. S. has trained boys for over twenty-five years, and points to a long list of those who have made their mark. Personal care is given each boy, under special home influences, in small classes, under trained instructors. The body is cared for in our own gymnasium and on our own athletic field, but we do not "go to seed" on the athletic question. It is a non-sectarian, but religious school. It combines the best home influences with high-grade literary work, thorough military drill, systematic physical culture, and the highest educational standards. We expect to make L. T. S. the model in the South.

It prepares for life or the highest universities, taking boys from ten to twenty-one years old. Its diploma passes anywhere in the U. S. It combines all the advantages of city and country, with no disadvantages of either.

Board and tuition fees range from $225.00 to $325.00 per year, owing to age, advancement of pupils, and number in a room.

Are you seeking a first-class preparing school—one of unsurpassed record, one you can depend on, one reasonable in price—a school that knows a boy and what to do with him, whose motto is ever economy, integrity, industry, thoroughness? If so, we commend the L. T. S., which opened its twentieth year the third Monday in September, 1908.

It will pay you, parent, to seek entrance for your boy here by communicating with the Head Master.

Attendance is limited to 75. Illustrated catalogue free.
